May We Recommend

The Outlander, by Gil Adamson (Ecco, $25.95) "The Outlander is a breathlessly told tale of a murderess widow who flees into the mountain wilderness, pursued by her vengeance-seeking brothers-in-law. As she makes her hapless way, she meets up with an entertainingly odd series of characters who propel her on her journey, their eccentricities mirroring her sometimes faltering mind. A marvelous adventure in the early 1900s North American West." —Kathleen Johnson, Prairie Lights Books, Iowa City, IA

May We Recommend

The Legend of Colton H. Bryant, by Alexandra Fuller (Penguin Press, $23.95) "Alexandra Fuller's new title is a vivid recounting of the raw and poignant life of a young oil-rig worker in the modern-day American West. Writing about what she knows gives Fuller the ability to develop an unparalleled truthfulness and depth to both her scenes and subjects." —Kathleen Thut, Inkwell Bookstore, Falmouth, MA
