For Ages 4 to 8

Colette's Lost Pet, by Isabelle Arsenault (Random House Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "Colette's Lost Pet is whimsical, funny, and quietly beautiful. When Colette is tasked with making friends in her new neighborhood, she is a bit shy. To make herself feel better, she creates an elaborate lie about a lost parakeet named Marie Antoinette. All of the neighbor children help her search for this bird that can surf, speak, and otherwise dazzle. Arsenault's artwork, done largely in black and white with sudden bursts of color, is as magical as the lie Colette creates—vibrant yet interspersed with the mundane shades of everyday life. Lovely."
