Other Indie Favorites

Ginny Moon: A Novel, by Benjamin Ludwig (Park Row Books, $26.99) "In a novel both heartwarming and heartbreaking, Benjamin Ludwig draws you into Ginny Moon's world and has you holding your breath until the last page. Told from Ginny's perspective, the story gives readers the unique advantage of seeing the world in all its confusion through the eyes and mind of a 13-year-old autistic girl. Taken from an abusive mother when she was nine, Ginny has struggled within the foster care system for several years, finally ending up with her current 'forever family.' Ginny is lovable yet frustrating, and totally unforgettable!" —Maxwell Gregory, Lake Forest Book Store, Lake Forest, IL

'Round Midnight: A Novel, by Laura McBride (Touchstone, $25.99) "Four women, five decades, and one Las Vegas nightclub come together in a powerful story of lust, grief, and family ties. Laura McBride spins a richly evocative tale of the glory days of Las Vegas and the women who inhabited this world. Their stories are intertwined both with and without their knowledge, and together they forge a future that none of them could foresee. Taking readers from the depths of grief and then sending them soaring with emotion, 'Round Midnight' is an awe-inspiring novel that deserves to be on the bookshelf of every avid reader." —Pamela Klingner-Horn, Excelsior Bay Books, Excelsior, MN
