Another Indie Favorite

They Can't Kill Us Until They Kill Us: Essays, by Hanif Abdurraqib (Two Dollar Radio, $16.99) "With the depth and versatility of an immensely talented poet and the strong, perceptive wit of a cultural critic, Hanif Abdurraqib shows us his tremendous ability to bend language to his will in this collection of essays. Deftly moving from ruminations on Chance the Rapper, Atmosphere, and Future, to Bruce Springsteen, Fall Out Boy, and Johnny Cash, Abdurraqib is able to traverse conversations on black excellence, grief, and hope. This book taught me something fresh about humanity with every turn of the page, and it will stay with me for a long time to come." —Matt Keliher, SubText Books, St. Paul, MN
