Another Indie Favorite

Orphans of the Carnival, by Carol Birch (Anchor, $16.95) "Orphans of the Carnival is the story of a time when the oddities of nature could be a lucrative path to fame and fortune. Although heartbreaking, it is the wonderful journey of a talented woman who just wants a normal life, in spite of being alternately vilified and celebrated. Filled with many unforgettable characters and amazing writing, this is a book that will stay with readers for a long time." —Mary McBride, Rainy Day Books, Fairway, KS
