

JULY '08

WHAT WAS LOST

A Novel, by Catherine O'Flynn

"With irreverent wit and sharp insight, O'Flynn weaves a mesmerizing tale of a precocious missing girl and the people who surround her. By tapping into emotions with ease and grace, this book wonderfully weaves together characters and the love that even loss can't affect."

Meaghan Leenaarts, Island Bookstore, Corolla, NC

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

TIME IS A RIVER

A Novel, by Mary Alice Monroe

"Told partly in narrative and partly through well-researched historical diaries and letters, this story of cancer survivor Mia Landan's renewal in a North Carolina cabin is a very powerful novel of forgiveness, redemption, and new birth."

Jackie Blem, Tattered Cover Bookstore, Denver, CO

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

HOW THE SOLDIER REPAIRS THE GRAMOPHONE

by Sasa Stanisic

"A child matures in Bosnia as war comes clanking down his street and he tries to make sense of the good and the bad in the world through stories. A bold novel, and timely."

Russ Lawrence, Chapter One Book Store, Hamilton, MT

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

OXYGEN

A Novel, by Carol Wiley Cassella

"When Dr. Marie Heaton's judgment in a tragic case is questioned, she begins to doubt herself and, then, others around her. I thoroughly enjoyed the book—full of action and suspense and rich in characterization and subplots—from start to finish."

Gayle Wingerter, Inklings Bookshop, Yakima, WA

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

CHURCH OF THE DOG

A Novel, by Kaya McLaren

"Mara, an art teacher, takes up her new job in ranch country in Washington State, moves in to a bunkhouse on Earl and Edith's property, and starts a magical relationship. This wonderful gem of a book is a story of bringing out the wonder and magic in all of us."

Sue Richardson, Maine Coast Book Shop, Damariscotta, ME

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

HOUSE & HOME

A Novel, by Kathleen McCleary

"When Sam loses their home on a 'crazy' invention investment, Ellen, his wife, must come to grips with saying goodbye to her beloved house and with her anger. A timely and thoughtful book."

Linda Vinstra, Great Northern Books and Hobbies, Oscoda, MI

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

HOUSE RULES

A Joe DeMarco Thriller, by Mike Lawson

"Mike Lawson's fine new Joe DeMarco thriller—set against the Washington, D.C., political backdrop—tackles what seems to be a new set of terrorist attacks in the U.S. The novel works on several levels—including vivid characters and fine and complex plotting—and Lawson addresses how fear is used to manipulate national politics."

Dan Domike, Jackson Street Books, Seattle, WA

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

THE SECRET SCRIPTURE

A Novel, by Sebastian Barry

"Barry's novel of Roseanne McNulty, now in her hundredth year in an Irish mental hospital, is a haunting story of memory and how small decisions can have large consequences. The writing was such a treat that I actually got to the last page late one night and saved it until the next morning. I didn't want to read it until I was fully awake and could relish the end."

Rona Brinlee, The Book Mark, Atlantic Beach, FL

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

TELEX FROM CUBA

A Novel, by Rachel Kushner

"Set in the last days of Cuba's golden age (at least, for American businessmen), this saga, at once familial and national, chronicles the drama of Castro's coming coup upon a family stuck in the center of an unstoppable storm. Kushner's storytelling—as detailed as it is colorful; as truthful as it is fictional—reads like a vast mural in prose, covering the reader's imagination with pages of forceful action and forthright emotion."

Steve Shapiro, Rainy Day Books, Fairway, KS

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

UP FOR RENEWAL

What Magazines Taught Me About Love, Sex, and Starting Over, by Cathy Alter

"When writer Cathy Alter challenged herself to change her life, she became the guinea pig in her own experiment: to live her life by the headlines of women's magazines. Not only did her journey of self-discovery lead her to the man she had always dreamed of, but she also discovered how to cook a magnificent meal and forged a better relationship with her mother, all the while maintaining clear skin. Funny and endearing."

Holly Nelson, Changing Hands Bookstore, Tempe, AZ

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

A VENGEFUL LONGING

A Novel, by R.N. Morris

"Fans of historical crime novels, attend: here is a twisty, clever mystery set in 1860s St. Petersburg and starring Porfiry Petrovich, a shrewd, eccentric, and fascinating police magistrate investigating a murder that's literally death by chocolate."

Mark David Bradshaw, Watermark Books, Wichita, KS

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG

JULY '08

CHOSEN FOREVER

A Memoir, by Susan Richards

"Susan Richard has written a sequel to Chosen by A Horse, her wonderful memoir. Her new book relates how the publication of Chosen totally changed her life, connecting her to friends and family from whom she was estranged, and to a man who became the love of her life."

Nancy Olson, Quail Ridge Books, Raleigh, NC

Find out more about this book and others at WWW.INDIEBOUND.ORG