

Give a Gift of Free Speech!

ABFFE Offers New Introductory Memberships for $15!

The American Booksellers Foundation for Free Expression—the bookseller’s voice in the fight against censorship—needs you! And all your friends! ABFFE is now offering introductory memberships for $15—a discount of more than 70 percent on the cost of an individual membership.

Open a world of information to people who may not know that the fight for First Amendment rights is a daily battle.

Give the satisfaction that comes from belonging to a group that is fighting hard for bookstores, like the Tattered Cover, that are in trouble because of their defense of First Amendment rights.

Introductory memberships are a perfect way to introduce young booksellers to their important role in defending free speech!

Your gift membership includes:

- A 2001 Banned Books Week kit, including resource guide and three posters (a $40 value), plus next year’s kit when available
- The new ABFFE “Burning Books” poster (a $6 value)
- ABFFE’s handbook, Censorship and First Amendment Rights and its special issue pamphlets on bookstore privacy, obscenity, and other timely issues
- ABFFE’s handsome membership pin
- ABFFE coffee mug
- A one-year subscription to ABFFE Update, which brings you the latest news on free speech issues that affect bookstores and the reading public.

To give an introductory membership:

- fill out the form below (list additional memberships on an attached sheet—please give name and complete address of each recipient)
- or use the ABFFE Web site, www.abffe.com.
- or call ABFFE at (212) 587-4025

(You don’t have to be a member to give an introductory membership. But why not add yourself to the list?)

Thank You for your support!
