Another Indie Favorite

The Stonecutter: A Novel, by Camilla Läckberg, Steven T. Murray (Tans.) (Free Press, $15.99) "Lackberg writes intricately crafted plots with prose that quickly draws you in. As this story opens, Detective Patrick Hedstrom is not having a good day as his new daughter is firmly against her parents enjoying a restful night. His day is about to get a lot worse. Tired and grumpy, he answers a call about a fisherman finding a body. The fisherman pulled up a child with his lobster pots, and the child turns out to be the daughter of Patrick's good friends. When it is determined that the child did not drown accidentally but was murdered, the tension mounts as it seems the village has disturbing secrets that go back generations. The latest work from a major talent." —Deon Stonehouse, Sunriver Books, Sunriver, OR
