The Arrangement: A Novel, by Ashley Warlick (Viking, $26) "Ostensibly the story of M.F.K. Fisher and the years when she honed her skills as America's first food essayist, The Arrangement is actually a story about the fragility of relationships. As Fisher grows in renown, her marriage crumbles and she boldly takes a lover who represents everything antithetical to her husband—his best friend. This is a sensual novel in every sense of the word, and the reader experiences all the excitement of both food and sexuality as Fisher becomes a more independent woman and discovers her writing abilities. What a woman! What a novel!" —William Carl, Wellesley Books, Wellesley, MA

My Father, the Pornographer: A Memoir, by Chris Offutt (Atria Books, $26) "This fascinating memoir of Offutt's difficult relationship with his father is complicated by the realization that his father was a prolific writer of pornography. Author Andrew Offutt was known as a science fiction writer, but, with his death, his son discovers that his family's income was due to the astounding abundance of writing in this other genre. As he catalogs his father's library of writings, drawings, and more, Offutt tries to understand the man who kept his family walking on eggshells. Difficult to read at times, but complex, intriguing, and hard to put down." —Nona Camuel, CoffeeTree Books, Morehead, KY
