Other Indie Favorites

The Usual Santas: A Collection of Soho Crime Christmas Capers, Foreword by Peter Lovesey (Soho Crime, $19.95) "Soho Crime publishes a wide variety of consistently high-quality crime fiction, so I expected this collection to be a great read, and it didn't disappoint. Not only does it feature holiday capers from a number of my favorite crime authors (Peter Lovesey, Stuart Neville, Helene Tursten, Mick Herron), it was also a great way to sample other Soho authors I haven't read yet. Even if you're not a fan of Christmas, you'll love The Usual Santas!" —Carol Schneck Varner, Schuler Books, Okemos, MI

Bonfire: A Novel, by Krysten Ritter (Crown Archetype, $26) "In this fast-paced thriller, successful environmental lawyer Abby Williams is brought back to her small Indiana town for work, where Optimal Plastics, a company that has helped rebuild the town and its economy, is under suspicion for water pollution. While investigating the pollution claims, Abby also becomes obsessed with discovering what happened to a classmate who disappeared 10 years earlier after a scandal that left many unanswered questions—a disappearance that has haunted her for years. In both cases, the search for truth leads Abby down a dark path of corruption and secrets. This is a remarkable debut novel and the must-read thriller of this fall." —Rebecca Olson, Saturn Booksellers, Gaylord, MI
