

Are you personally covered by health insurance?

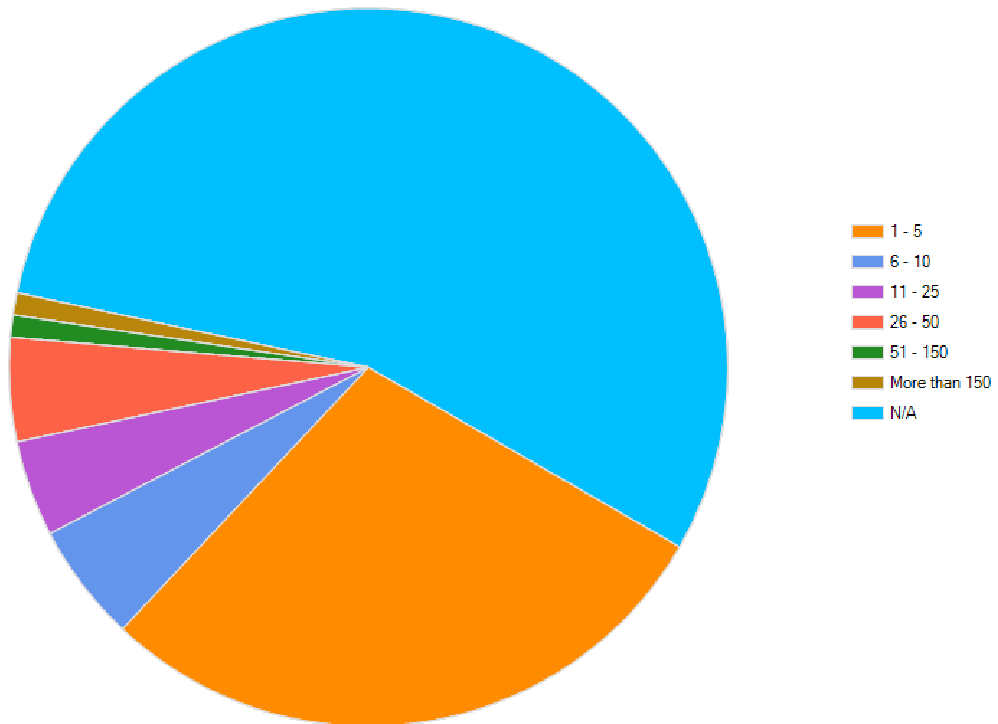

Do you currently pay all or part of the cost of health insurance benefits for your full-time employees insurance?

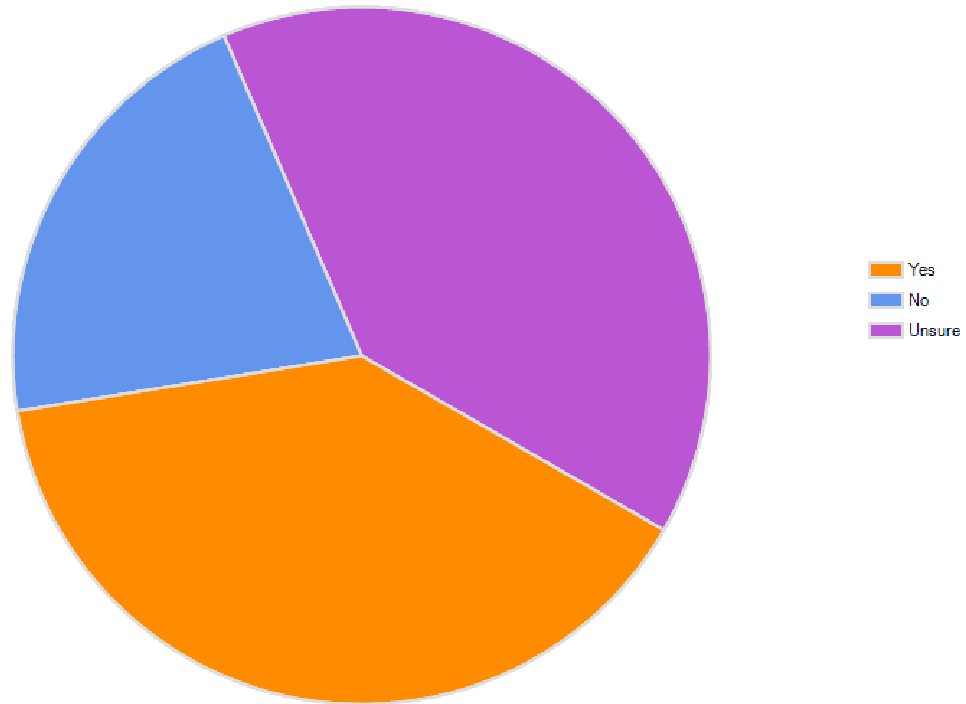

Do you currently pay all or part of the cost of health insurance benefits for your part-time employees insurance?

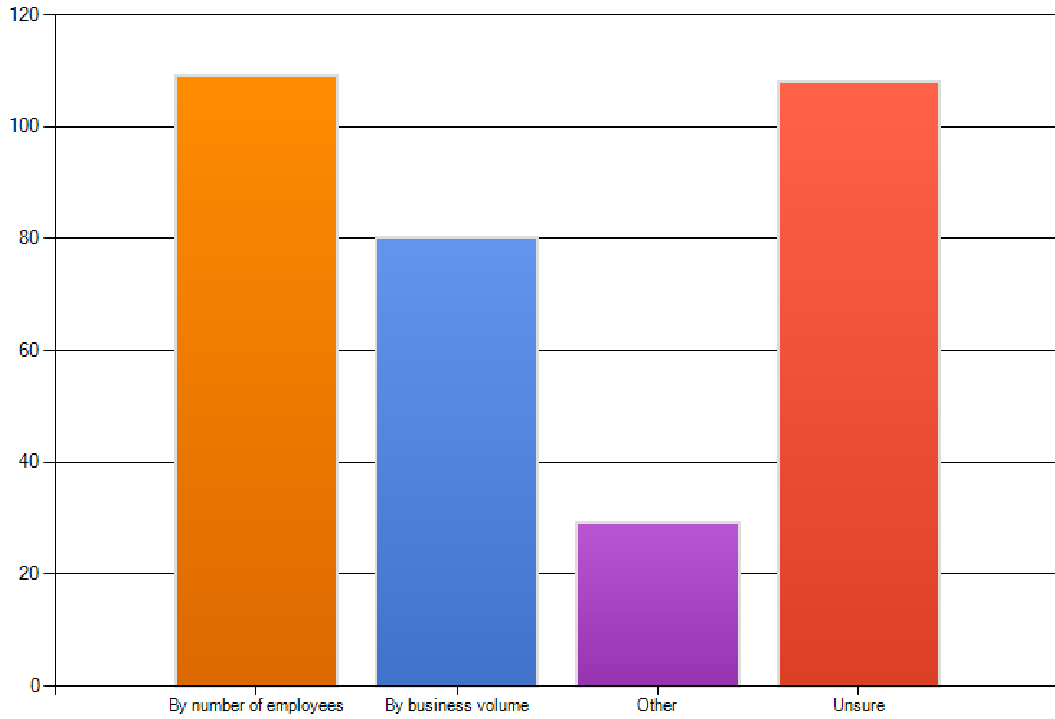

If you answered "Yes" to Question 1 or Question 2, how many employees are covered?

Would you support health care reform legislation that would require employers to contribute some percentage toward the cost of individual employee health insurance coverage.

If you answered "Yes" to Question 5, would you support legislation that would exempt small businesses:

In this debate, some continue to advocate for health care reforms in which government, rather than business, would play the major roll in providing health care. Do you support such an approach?

