

IndieCommerce - Website roles and permissions

Anonymous users

- View all published content
- Place orders
- Use site search

Authenticated users (user who has an account on the site)

Anonymous user privileges +

- View their orders and invoices
- Manage their payment profiles
- Create wish lists

Order Admin

All Authenticated user privileges +

- Process orders
- Process payment for orders
- Create & edit orders
- View customer information
- Manage coupons
- Manage shipping quotes
- Manage stock (if enabled)
- Upload local store inventory (if doing it manually)
- Manage store pricing
- Configure tax rules
- View reports
- View their own user profile and change their username

Store Editor

All Authenticated user privileges +

- Create and manage content - pages, events, blocks, menus, staff reviews, blogs, webforms etc. (this list will vary depending on the features enabled on the site)
- Create and manage custom products
- View their own user profile and change their username
- Administer and approve affiliate applications
- Administer taxonomy terms for content

Store Admins (most powerful of the staff roles)

- All Order Admin and Store Editor privileges +
- Assign Order Admin and Store Editor roles
 - Bulk upload of products
 - Flush site cache
 - Administer CAPTCHA
 - Administer contact form
 - Administer additional fields to content type
 - Administer Online Giftcode
 - Administer URL redirects
 - Administer site configuration
 - Manage store preferences
 - Configure 'Rules'