Other Indie Favorites

Three Stages of Amazement: A Novel, by Carol Edgarian (Scribner, $25) "I have nothing but praise for this wonderful novel! Edgarian's ability to capture the reality of the everyday routines and dilemmas of her characters results in a powerful connection with the reader. Her interconnected stories grip us not only because of the lessons they teach, but also because of her astonishing skill and wisdom as a storyteller, who makes the mundane become so compelling. I truly couldn't stop thinking about these people long after turning the last page." —Roberta Rubin, The Book Stall at Chestnut, Winnetka, IL

Bringing Adam Home: The Abduction That Changed America, by Les Standiford, Joe Matthews (Ecco, $24.99) "As riveting as any thriller, as poignant as any memoir, and as powerful as any investigative journalism, Bringing Adam Home is impossible to put down. The key scenes are beautiful, simple renderings of vulnerability and truth laid bare. This is a gripping work that should become a classic of the genre, not because of the crimes it explores, but for how it casts light into darkness." —Aaron John Curtis, Books & Books, Coral Gables, FL

Another Indie Favorite for Ages 4 to 8

You're Finally Here!, by Melanie Watt (Disney-Hyperion, $15.99) "Who knew a rabbit with expressive eyebrows, huge eyes, and a small but mighty mouth could carry off a story as the solo character? Melanie Watt, author and illustrator of the Scaredy Squirrel series, accomplishes just that in this simple but noisy dialogue between rabbit and reader. Make room for this rabbit next to a certain well-known pigeon!" —Beverly Bauer, Redbery Books, Cable, WI
