Another Indie Favorite

The Hand That First Held Mine, by Maggie O'Farrell (Mariner, $14.95) "Alternating chapters tell the story of two women in London in two very different times: Lexie, the journalist in post-war London, and Elina, a new mother struggling with her baby and her boyfriend in the present day. The portraits of these women are spellbinding in their depth of understanding, and the way O'Farrell weaves them together is dazzling." —Jude Sales, Readers' Books, Sonoma, CA
