Another Indie Favorite

The Sojourn, by Andrew Krivak (Bellevue Literary Press, $14.95) "As a sharpshooter in the declining Austro-Hungarian army, Jozef is entrenched in the tragedy of WWI in this exquisite first novel. Jozef had been a shepherd in the mountains before joining the army, and after the war, on his way home to his father, he encounters a mysterious Gypsy girl in the forest. The two travel onward together, struggling to make it to their destination. In a novel full of violence and beauty, Krivak shares a unique story about a boy becoming a man during a tragic period in world history." —Sherri Gallentine, Vroman's Bookstore, Pasadena, CA
