Other Indie Favorites

The Summer of the Bear: A Novel, by Bella Pollen (Atlantic Monthly, $24) "Why do some people's lives work out while others do not? Leticia Fleming asks this question on the eve of her husband's fatal fall from the roof of his embassy office in Bonn, Germany. Accident or suicide? Political or personal? Now, she and her three children are on their way to a small island in Scotland's Outer Hebrides to try to recover. It takes more than quiet island life, however, for Letty to let go of the past and return her attention to her children. It takes a little magic and a young boy's unflagging belief in his father's word. A heartfelt story of love and redemption." —Karen Briggs, Great Northern Books and Hobbies, Oscoda, MI

Tolstoy and the Purple Chair: My Year of Magical Reading, by Nina Sankovitch (Harper, $23.99) "This graceful memoir describes a true love affair with books. After losing her 46-year-old sister to cancer, Sankovitch embarks on a year of reading: one book every day for a full year. Her project, complete with daily book reviews, becomes an ongoing conversation with her sister and provides insight into her own past and contact with bibliophiles across the world. This is the best description of the power of books that I have ever encountered!" —Caitlin Daggart, Where the Sidewalk Ends, Chatham, MA
