Other Indie Favorites

Silver Sparrow: A Novel, by Tayari Jones (Algonquin, $19.95) "The unconventional, morally troubling relationships at the core of Jones' Silver Sparrow illustrate the universality of the human quest for acknowledgment, legitimacy, love, and loyalty. As Chaurisse and her secret half-sister, Dana, move toward adulthood, they must shed idealistic notions of romantic and familial love to face difficult truths. A complex family drama, a richly crafted coming-of-age story, and a meditation on the nature of love and forgiveness, this is a gripping story with characters you will not soon forget." —Libby Cowles, Maria's Bookshop, Durango, CO

Joy for Beginners: A Novel, by Erica Bauermeister (Putnam, $24.95) "Kate has conquered cancer, and now she has the goal to ride the white-water rapids in the Grand Canyon. During a celebration dinner, she gives each of her six friends an equally personal challenge. Bauermeister masterfully weaves the stories of the seven women together, allowing the reader to empathize with and root for each one as she jumps her own personal hurdle. A great selection for book clubs!" —Sam Droke-Dickinson, Aaron's Books, Lititz, PA
