Other Indie Favorites

South of Superior: A Novel, by Ellen Airgood (Riverhead, $25.95) "This story is like immersion therapy for anyone who has fantasized about a simpler life in a small town in a beautiful location. The town is McAllister, Michigan, on the southern shore of Lake Superior, as seen through the eyes of a young woman from Chicago who has come to make her home and, hopefully, a livelihood there. You will fall in love with McAllister, where every character is, of necessity, strong and where the currency is not measured in dollars, but rather in resourcefulness." —Jeanne Regentin, Between the Covers, Harbor Springs, MI

The Upright Piano Player: A Novel, by David Abbott (Doubleday/Nan A. Talese, $22.95) "As he faces retirement, Henry Cage finds his life spiraling out of control. He must deal with an ailing ex-wife, an estranged son, and a malicious stalker who is prone to violence. This first novel is both a page-turner and a disconcerting portrayal of the randomness of life and the choices we make. Strangely uplifting, The Upright Piano Player is guaranteed to keep you riveted." —Jack Gillard, Nicola's Books, Ann Arbor, MI
