Another Indie Favorite

The Reservoir: A Novel, by John Milliken Thompson (Other Press, $15.95)

"Based on real events in 1885, this is the story of the murder of Lillie, who was eight months pregnant when she was found floating face up in Richmond, Virginia's drinking water reservoir. Was it an accident, suicide, or something more sinister? The author captures not only the feeling of the time, when many legal procedures were far different than today, but also the timeless questions of trust and whether we can ever really know the true motivations of others, even those closest to us."

—Mary Kay Brunskill Cohen, Anderson's Bookshop, Naperville, IL
