Another Indie Favorite

The Call: A Novel, by Yannick Murphy (Harper Perennial, $14.99) "This sweet, funny novel—told in a series of call reports from a country vet—details the life of a family whose peace is shattered when their young son is left comatose from a hunting accident. The warmth, humor, and believability of the characters—including the four-legged variety—balance out the darker elements of the story and make The Call an absolute delight to read. E.B. White meets James Herriot with just a touch of Jonathan Safran Foer. —Carol Schneck, Schuler Books & Music, Okemos, MI
