Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12

Noah Barleywater Runs Away, by John Boyne, Oliver Jeffers (illus.) (David Fickling Books, $16.99) "Noah, age eight, runs away from a difficult reality at home to a fantasyland where trees scold him and animals talk. He finds a toy shop in which all the toys are made of wood, including row shop owner tells his own story, and through gentle, savvy, and wise dialogue leads Noah to return home. This allegory confronts the issues of fantasy and reality, immortality and mortality, and what it means to be human, all in a very fine read." —Joyce Miller, Baker Books, North Dartmouth, MA
