Other Indie Favorites

The Pilgrim: A Novel, by Hugh Nissenson (Sourcebooks Landmark, $24.99) "The reader is transported back to the earliest days of the settling of America by the sworn statement of one Charles Wentworth, who came to Plymouth soon after the Mayflower landing. The powerful influence of religion and the church is portrayed through his struggles with both his humanity and his faith, as Charles mourns the tragic loss of his betrothed while at the same time reveling in the death of the 'savages' who must be conquered to create a safe new home. This is a great work of historical fiction" —Carol Katsoulis, Anderson's Bookshop, Naperville, IL

Stone of Kings: In Search of the Lost Jade of the Maya, by Gerard Helferich (Lyons Press, $24.95) "In the spirit of Indiana Jones, author Helferich takes us on an amazing journey through history and through the mountains of Guatemala in search of the lost jade of the Maya. If you relish great fireside tales of adventure or going into the jungles from your armchair, you'll enjoy this book. And if you happen to be a gem or a rock lover, even better! By the way, you may be surprised to learn that jade comes in more colors than just green—especially the good stuff!" —Linda Bond, Auntie's Bookstore, Spokane, WA
