Another Indie Favorite

Flatscreen: A Novel, by Adam Wilson (Harper Perennial, $14.99) "Reading Flatscreen in public without cracking up was a challenge, one that I did not meet, and I frequently looked like a crazy person. Wilson balances heartbreak with humor in a way that is affecting and real. In the book, we meet Eli Schwartz, college dropout, failed Hebrew, and culinary master. Eli's struggle to assert himself in a digitized world as a fleshed-out man is as frighteningly real as it is funny. Eli longs for what all twenty-somethings long for—a sense of belonging, to be loved, and, perhaps, to be worshiped. Flatscreen is a treasure. Bravo, Mr. Wilson!" —Zach Sampinos, Weller Book Works, Salt Lake City, UT
