Other Indie Favorites

The Professionals: A Novel, by Owen Laukkanen (Putnam Adult, $25.95) "This is a top-notch debut thriller with an unusual plot, terrific characters, and non-stop action. It has been a while since I started a book and couldn't stop until it was finished. The Professionals is one of those books. The bad guys don't seem too bad at first and the cops chasing them don't seem to be too capable. That all changes by the end of the book when both the criminals and those enforcing the law show that they are true professionals—willing to sacrifice everything." —Nancy McFarlane, Fiction Addiction, Greenville, SC

Forgotten Country: A Novel, by Catherine Chung (Riverhead, $26.95) "On the day of her sister's birth, Janie is told by her Korean grandmother that one girl child in each generation dies. This statement sets the stage for Janie's 'disappearance' and 'reemergence.' Laced with Korean folklore and culture, the story moves seamlessly from Korea to Middle America and reflects the travails of an immigrant family both culturally and emotionally. The writing in this debut is poetic, spare, and exquisite. It would be a great pick for a book group." —Biddy Kehoe, Hockessin Book Shelf, Hockessin, DE
