Other Indie Favorites

The Coldest Night: A Novel of Love & War, by Robert Olmstead (Algonquin, $23.95) "In The Coldest Night, Olmstead tells the story of Henry Childs and his first love, his run from its failure into the brutality of the Korean War, and his scarred return home. Reading Olmstead is like eating a meal put together with a minimum number of ingredients that have lovingly been transformed into something amazing and truly satisfying. Olmstead is an author every lover of words should read, and this new novel is a great place to start." —Lisa Sharp, Nightbird Books, Fayetteville, AR

Dust to Dust: A Memoir, by Benjamin Busch (Ecco, $26.99) "In this powerful memoir, Busch muses on life both concrete and abstract. He traces his life—as a boy, a marine, a son, a father, an actor—through a prism of materials: stone, ash, water, blood, and bone. Each chapter is a different view into the same life, taking us deeper and deeper, letting us up to breathe, then pulling us back down to the heart of things. No matter if he's rebuilding a farmhouse in Michigan or training marines in North Carolina, Busch focuses completely on the moment and takes us there, and then connects us back to the wide world. A book to savor, to appreciate, and to be changed by." —Kate Reynolds, Colgate Bookstore, Hamilton, NY
