Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers

The Selection, by Kiera Cass (HarperTeen, $17.99) "In this dystopian setting that overlays a futuristic society with the things we love about old-fashioned fairy tales, Cass weaves an intriguing story with the perfect balance of real-world problems and romance. America is a young, proud girl with a big heart and a bit of a temper from an impoverished family and social class. She's a talented, self-respecting character who is great fun to follow in this fantastic Badteller-type setting. I can't wait for the sequel!" —Larissa Genschaw, Children's Bookshop, Kent, WA
