Other Indie Favorites

The Chaperone: A Novel, by Laura Moriarty (Riverhead Hardcover, $26.95) "Silent film star Louise Brooks was accustomed to being the center of attention, but that is not the case in this exquisite novel about the summer of 1922, when 15-year-old Louise traveled to New York for dance training. At the center of this story is her chaperone, 36-year-old Cora Carlisle, who has reasons of her own for traveling to New York that fateful summer. Cora's story is one of casting after the classic American dream, but with a few unexpected twists. Moriarty's writing captures it perfectly." —Katherine Osborne, Kennebooks, Kennebunk, ME

The Watchers: A Novel, by Jon Steele (Blue Rider Press, $26.95) "Set in the gothic Lausanne Cathedral, this is a haunting and beautiful tale of fallen angels, the innocents and the not-so-innocent who fall prey to them, and those who are there to defend against evil. Steele offers a terrifyingly suspenseful yet mystical and extremely tender story, and the reader will wonder who and what are real and who and what they can trust." —Lynn Pellerito Riehl, Nicola's Books, Ann Arbor, MI
