Equal of the Sun: A Novel, by Anita Amirrezvani (Scribner, $26) "Persia in the 16th century is rife with intrigue and danger. The Shah has died without a successor, and his daughter and protégé, Princess Pari Khan Kanoom, maneuvers to secure a position of power in a man's world. She is aided by the eunuch Javaher, a man who loves the princess more than life. Based on historical figures, this sumptuous portrayal of the royal court of Persia is the story of a woman who took risks and made her mark on history." —Deon Stonehouse, Sunriver Books, Sunriver, OR

Heading Out to Wonderful: A Novel, by Robert Goolrick (Algonquin, $24.95) "True to what you'd expect from the author of A Reliable Wife, Goolrick's characters are enigmatic, imperfect, and do not behave according to society's dictates. The romance that erupts between Sylvan Glass, an unschooled country girl with dreams of Hollywood, and Charlie Beale, a newcomer to town, will change everyone in town in unexpected ways, most of all young Sam, who bears witness to their fiery, ill-fated affair. A great read!" —Connie Brooks, Battenkill Books, Cambridge, NY
