Other Indie Favorites

Shout Her Lovely Name, by Natalie Serber (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, $24) "From the first page, this extraordinary collection of short stories grabbed me by the throat and would not let go. Each one is filled with poignant, thought-provoking observations on the tenuous, yet unbreakable, bond between mothers and daughters. Serber has given readers a remarkable, heartfelt book to be savored, shared, and passed on from one generation to another." — Anderson McKean, Page & Palette, Fairhope, AL

Juliet in August, by Dianne Warren (Amy Einhorn Books/Putnam, $25.95) "This quietly lovely story of people finding joy where they can is set near the Little Snake Hills sand dunes of the Canadian West, where small town lives can be as dry and brittle as the prairie grasses or as rich as the history of the area. Among the characters are a man and a woman with an old drive-in theater and a missing camel named Antoinette; a couple and their children getting deeper in debt; and a lost Arabian horse who helps a man discover what to do with his life. Highly deserving of Canada's Governor General's Award." — Susan Wasson, Bookworks, Albuquerque, NM
