Other Indie Favorites

The Collective: A Novel, by Don Lee (Norton, $25.95) "In this sometimes heartbreaking, at other times hilarious novel, Eric Cho contemplates the life of Joshua Yoon, the Korean novelist with whom he, along with provocative visual artist Jessica Tsai, once formed the 3AC or Asian American Artists Collective, first in college and later in Cambridge. What led Joshua to commit suicide—or was it?—by running into the path of an oncoming car? Lee once again tackles identity themes, but this time through the lens of the college novel. A triumph!" —Barbara Peters, The Poisoned Pen, Scottsdale, AZ

Shine Shine Shine: A Novel, by Lydia Netzer (St. Martin's Press, $24.99) "Sunny Mann is nine months pregnant and the mother of an autistic four-year-old. Her mother is dying. On top of all this, her husband, Maxon, is on his way to the moon to colonize it with robots. Yet Sunny manages to pretend that her life is 'normal', until the aftermath of a minor car accident forces her to confront her perceptions and redefine who she is. Shine Shine Shine is a love story unlike any you've ever read, told in lyrical prose that will have you re-reading paragraphs simply to enjoy the author's voice and her way with words." —Carla Ketner, Chapters Books & Gifts, Seward, NE
