Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers

The Edge of Nowhere, by Elizabeth George (Viking Juvenile, $18.99) "Becca King can hear whispers—snippets of other people's thoughts that weave into her mind in occasionally dangerous ways. It's because of this ability that she finds herself stranded on remote Whideby Island, hiding from her stepfather and involved in a mystery that shakes her new community. George brings her tremendous talents to YA for the first time, and this creepy, romantic mystery has just a hint of the paranormal and a fabulously lush Pacific-Northwest setting. Becca's story is magically addictive—I can't wait for the next installment!" —Hannah Manishel, 57th Street Books, Chicago, IL
