Other Indie Favorites

In Between Days, by Andrew Porter (Knopf, $24.95)
“In his debut novel, Porter masterfully presents each of his characters’ experiences with stunning believability: Elton, losing his longtime job as a respected architect; Richard, developing as a poet but struggling with his relationships with other men; Chloe, discovering the consequences of her radical boyfriend’s actions. When Chloe drops out of college and returns home, she sets into motion a chain of events that sparks a reaction from everyone around her. There is an air of secrecy and helplessness that pervades the story, mirroring the hushed secrets and misunderstandings that fuel the plot. Beautifully written and suspenseful.” —Andrea Aquino, Bookshop Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz, CA

The Map of the Sky: A Novel, by Felix J. Palma (Atria, $26)
“Playful and entertaining, this is a thoroughly beguiling read! Featuring narration by H.G. Wells—as in Palma’s previous stellar work, The Map of Time—this is a story rife with illusion and mystery. With appearances by Edgar Allan Poe, Captain Shackleton, and a possible Martian, this shrewd and versatile novel is a joy to read!” —Tova Beiser, Brown University Bookstore, Providence, RI
