Other Indie Favorites

The Paternity Test, by Michael Lowenthal (University of Wisconsin Press, $26.95) "This novel is at once timely and classic. Readers won't be able to help rooting for Pat and Stu as they struggle to conceive a child through surrogacy and fight their family's—and their own—preconceived notions of what it means to be gay, all while trying to salvage their rocky relationship. Lowenthal's latest novel ultimately addresses the universal question: What makes a family a family? Deftly told and perfectly paced. Don't miss this one!" —Alise Hamilton, Andover Bookstore, Andover, MA

May We Be Forgiven, by A.M. Homes (Viking Adult, $26.95) "Homes' latest darkly comic novel is more poignant and moving than it appears at first glimpse, and the rudderless, hapless Nixon scholar Harold Silver's year in the wilderness is more eye-opening than he can at first admit to himself. As Harry grows and grieves in his own way over the course of the insanity-laced year, we are happily along for the ride, unquestioningly loving the person he becomes. A truly remarkable feat of storytelling that both pulsates with the underlying ache of loss and manages to crack a couple of your ribs when you laugh too hard!" —Seth Marko, UCSD Bookstore, La Jolla, CA
