Another Indie Favorite

The Confidant: A Novel, by Helene Gremillon, Alison Anderson (Trans.) (Penguin, $15) "Infertility and infidelity lie at the heart of this very French romance. In 1975, Camille, a young Parisian editor who has just lost her mother, receives an unusual letter of condolence, the first of a weekly series of lengthy reminiscences from an anonymous source concerning events and people in wartime France from 1939 to 1943. Is it an author with a novel method of getting an editor's attention or a bona fide memoir of prewar France? And is Camille really the intended recipient? Family secrets, unsuspected for 30 years, shake Camille to her core in this suspenseful and intricately plotted debut." —Darwin Ellis, Books on The Common, Ridgefield, CT
