Other Indie Favorites

Criminal Enterprise: A Novel, by Owen Laukkanen (Putnam, $26.95) "CPA Carter Tomlin loses his job but pretends he is still employed. Desperate for funds, he robs a bank. One bank robbery leads to another, and soon he is shooting and terrorizing people. Introduced in Laukkanen's first novel, The Professionals, FBI agent Carla Windermere and Minnesota Investigator Kirk Stevens team up again. Carla knows that it is Carter doing the robberies, but Carter knows Carla has figured it out and he becomes even more violent and brazen. Laukkanen is the new crime writer on the block!" —Susan Wasson, Bookworks, Albuquerque, NM

Being Esther: A Novel, by Miriam Karmel (Milkweed Editions, $22) "Esther's daughter worries about her widowed mother living alone, but Esther resists being 'sent to Bingoville' and prefers living in her familiar northside Chicago apartment building with its mix of neighbors, including her childhood friend. This is a pitch-perfect portrait of a woman reflecting on her past struggles and joys, meeting each day with zest despite her failing health and memory. A gem!" —Ellen Sandmeyer, Sandmeyer's Bookstore, Chicago, IL
