Other Indie Favorites

Woke Up Lonely: A Novel, by Fiona Maazel (Graywolf Press, $26) "Woke Up Lonely is a wild thing of genius, so funny and so smart. Maazel presents us with a warped mirror of our country and the time we live in. The Helix, a cult of the lonely, and its founder, Thurlow Dan, along with his ex-wife, Esme, and their daughter, Ida, head a superb cast of characters. The story unfolds in a winding, fun-house fashion, sporting locales from Washington, D.C., to North Korea to Cincinnati. I envy those who are about to read this truly one-of-a-kind work of fiction."
—Cody Morrison, Square Books, Oxford, MS

The Andalucian Friend: A Novel, by Alexander Soderberg (Crown, $26) "Fans of Stieg Larson's Millennium series, rejoice! A new high-octane thriller—the first in a trilogy—has arrived. Sophie Brinkmann, a single mother and nurse, finds herself in the middle of a war between international drug dealers when she meets and starts dating book publisher Hector Guzman. Sophie turns to an ex-boyfriend for help, but he is an arms dealer whose latest deal has angered his clients, unpredictable Russian mobsters. All these people collide in a tightly woven and highly suspenseful story that will keep you reading long into the night." —Pierre Camy, Schuler Books & Music, Grand Rapids, MI
