Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers

On Little Wings, by Regina Sirois (Wiking Juvenile, $17.99) "When 16-year-old Jennifer learns that her mother has a sister, she travels from Nebraska to Maine to meet the aunt she never knew she had. During the visit, Jennifer discovers the reason her mother severed the relationship, falls in love, and finds happiness. Quirky characters, sprinklings of exquisite literature, beautiful descriptions of the Maine coastline, and a compelling story of unspeakable heartbreak, unlivd dreams, and untold stories will have readers cheering for Jennifer as she explores the landscape of fragile emotions and painful memories."
