Other Indie Favorites

Brewster: A Novel, by Mark Slouka (W.W. Norton, $25.95) "The setting is Brewster, New York, in 1968, at the peak of the Vietnam War. Sixteen-year-old Jon Mosher, the son of Jewish immigrants who escaped Europe during WWII, is searching for his own escape from a dead-end town and his guilt over his older brother's death. He meets fellow student Ray Cappicciano and together they struggle to make sense of their quickly changing world. Jon discovers his strength in running track with his high school team, and Ray finds a similar outlet as a fighter. Raw and brutal at times, the well-drawn characters of this poignant story stay with you well after the book is closed." —Helen Markus, Hearthfire Books of Evergreen, Evergreen, CO

Return to Oakpine: A Novel, by Ron Carlson (Viking, $25.95) "Thirty years after the heyday of their high school band, four men reunite in their hometown of Oakpine, Wyoming. One has returned to live out his last days, and he stands as the focal point as all of the men, and those close to them, examine how they've lived and what fulfills them. Carlson has written a beautiful novel full of soulful searching, gentle wisdom, and the clarity gained from acknowledging one's weaknesses while still striving to love. By the end, it made me weep." —Sheryl Cotleur, Copperfield's Books, Sebastopol, CA
