Other Indie Favorites

Babayaga: A Novel, by Toby Barlow (Farrar, Straus and Giroux, $27) "Moving from ancient Russia to the dawn of the New World, stretching into an endless future, but mainly rushing madly around postwar Paris, Babayaga covers a lot of ground. Vengeful witches hunt, charm, and wage battle. Evil scientists hatch sinister plans. A dashing spy runs a crew of outcast mercenaries. A good-hearted police inspector stays on his case, even in the form of a flea! And hapless Will, ad man/CIA informant, is caught in the whirlwind, which just might be the best thing that's ever happened to him. Babayaga crackles with an electric energy driven by its hilariously inventive plot, clever prose, and outrageously eccentric cast of characters." —Sarah Hinckley, Hudson Booksellers, Marietta, GA

Shot All to Hell, by Mark Lee Gardner (William Morrow, $27.99) "Shot All to Hell is the riveting tale of the Old West's most brazen crime. Over 130 years have passed since the death of Jesse James, yet we remain fascinated by this enigmatic outlaw and his gang. By 1876, the James-Younger gang was both feared and famous. The gang's decision to rob the First National Bank in Northfield, Minnesota, would prove to be a disaster when the citizens rose up to defend their town. Gardner's account of the crime and its aftermath is thorough and enthralling, and his recreation of the robbery and the shootout that followed a two-week manhunt is edge-of-your-seat exciting." —Christopher Rose, Andover Bookstore, Andover, MA

Another Indie Favorite

Ghostman: A Novel, by Roger Hobbs (Vintage, $14.95) "Jack, both brilliant and cunning, has made it to the top of the gangster ranks. Extremely wealthy, equipped with the most modern technological tools and constantly changing addresses and even his physical appearance, Jack is like a living ghost. Only a happy few know how to contact him. An old partner in crime to whom he is indebted calls on Jack to clean up the mess from a seemingly well-organized heist gone bad. Not trusting his former partner, hunted by an extremely dangerous mobster, and chased by the FBI, Jack needs all of his tricks to keep his ghost-like existence intact. Smart and captivating from beginning to end, a stellar debut!" —Jean-Paul Adriaansen, Water Street Books, Exeter, NH

Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12
An Army of Frogs: A Kuilpari Novel, by Trevor Pryce, Sanford Greene (illus.) (Amulet Books, $15.95) "In this action-packed animal fantasy, an evil spider queen joins forces with the duplicitous leader of an army of scorpions to pierce the veil protecting the Amphiblands from the outside world. Darel, a young frog who dreams of being a great warrior, and his best friend, Gee, who has no such aspirations, discover the planned invasion. Before the frogs can sound the alert, Gee is captured by scorpion scouts. Should Darel try to save his friend or run for reinforcements?" —Ellen Klein, Hooray for Books!, Alexandria, VA
