Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12

Prisoner 88, by Leah Pileggi (Charlesbridge, $16.95) "In her debut novel, Pileggi introduces us to the Wild West of 1885 and the story of 10-year-old Jake, who is thrown into the Idaho Territorial Penitentiary for supposedly shooting a man. Jake is given a job helping to tend hogs; is taught to read, and marvels daily that he has full plates of food. His loyalty to the guards and inmates who befriend him leads to trouble when he thwarts an attempted escape plan. Based on a newspaper account of a boy's actual incarceration, Prisoner 88 leaves us wanting to know more about Jake and what happens next." —Shirley Mullin, Kids Ink Children's Bookstore, Indianapolis, IN
