Other Indie Favorites

Through the Evil Days, by Julia Spencer-Fleming (Minotaur, $25.99) "Police chief Russ Van Alstyne and Episcopal minister Claire Fergusson attempt to take their long-awaited honeymoon, only to become embroiled in a murder and child kidnapping case in upstate New York. A blizzard cuts off most normal means of communication as well as the roads, and the clock ticks as they attempt to locate the missing girl who won't survive if she doesn't get her medication in time. A wonderful addition to this outstanding series!" —Connie Brooks, Battenkill Books, Cambridge, NY

Report From the Interior, by Paul Auster (Henry Holt, $27) "Auster's newest memoir is both unusual and beautiful. I was captivated by his odd mixtape of memories, his blunt honesty, and his comforting tenderness. Whether describing his two favorite films in charming detail or deconstructing his experience with first love, Auster stokes flames of wonder at each turn. It is as though he is reliving each new experience and, to some extent, relearning from each as well. Highly recommended!" —Will Walton, Avid Bookshop, Athens, GA
