Another Indie Favorite for Ages 4 to 8

Knock Knock: My Dad's Dream for Me, by Daniel Beaty, Bryan Collier (illus.) (Little Brown, $18) "This is the beautiful story of a young boy who loves his father and relies on him to be a strong presence in his life. When his father stops 'knock knocking' on his door, the boy waits and wonders why his father is absent, ever hopeful for his return. Knock Knock honors the relationship of a father and his child and teaches children how to be a person who would make a father proud. A great book to give to anyone who is dealing with the loss of a parent."
