Other Indie Favorites

The Ascendant: A Thriller, by Drew Chapman (Simon & Schuster, $25) "A ruthless entity has declared war on America, not through military attacks or terrorist activities but by targeting our economy. Two hundred billion dollars in U.S. Treasury bonds are sold off, precious natural resources are destroyed, our power grid is sabotaged, and the real estate market is gutted when property is sold for cutthroat prices. Only one man, Garret Reilly, a trading prodigy who has an uncanny ability to recognize patterns, has a sense of what is being perpetrated and who is behind it. Chapman has created a brilliant, gripping thriller that is all the more frightening in its distinct possibility!" —Jerry Brown, The Bookstore, Radcliff, KY

The Trip to Echo Spring: On Writers and Drinking, by Olivia Laing (Picador, $26) "The Trip to Echo Spring is the ideal blend of memoir, literary criticism, and travelogue. Fans of Joan Didion, Susan Sontag, and Geoff Dyer will soon list Olivia Laing as one of their favorite writers. Laing never glamorizes alcoholism; instead, she lifts the romantic veil off the stories we know about some of the most famous drunken scribes and shows just how devastating—but alluring—alcohol can be." —Michele Filgate, Community Bookstore, Brooklyn, NY

Another Indie Favorite

The Colour of Milk: A Novel, by Neil Leyshon (Ecco, $14.99) "Heartbreaking, breathtaking, and very human, The Colour of Milk reads less like historical fiction and more like a memoir. Mary is a hardworking but willful farm girl in rural England until her abusive father 'sells' her to the local vicar as a servant. Her new position brings her opportunities for education and wider knowledge than she ever had before, but there are consequences. This gripping story of power, family, and self-determination will pull you right in and stay with you for a long time." —Caitlin Caulfield, Odyssey Bookshop, South Hadley, MA

Another Indie Favorite for Teen Readers
The Extra, by Kathryn Laskey (Candlewick Press, $16.99) "This important historical novel tells the little-known story of the fate of the Gypsies during the Holocaust. It is told through the eyes of a courageous girl chosen to be an extra in the propaganda films made by Hitler's filmmaker, Leni Riefenstahl. As seen through the eyes of this 16-year-old, the frightening horrors of the Holocaust come to life in a new way. An informative book for all ages, and a great new resource for educators." —Isabel Berg, Gibson's Bookstore, Concord, NH
