Other Indie Favorites

The Ascendant: A Thriller, by Drew Chapman (Simon & Schuster, $25) "A ruthless entity has declared war on America, not through military attacks or terrorist activities but by targeting our economy. Two hundred billion dollars in U.S. Treasury bonds are sold off, precious natural resources are destroyed, our power grid is sabotaged, and the real estate market is gutted when property is sold for cutthroat prices. Only one man, Garret Reilly, a trading prodigy who has an uncanny ability to recognize patterns, has a sense of what is being perpetrated and who is behind it. Chapman has created a brilliant, gripping thriller that is all the more frightening in its distinct possibility!" —Jerry Brown, The Bookstore, Radcliff, KY

The Trip to Echo Spring: On Writers and Drinking, by Olivia Laing (Picador, $26) "The Trip to Echo Spring is the ideal blend of memoir, literary criticism, and travelogue. Fans of Joan Didion, Susan Sontag, and Geoff Dyer will soon list Olivia Laing as one of their favorite writers. Laing never glamorizes alcoholism; instead, she lifts the romantic veil off the stories we know about some of the most famous drunken scribes and shows just how devastating—but alluring—alcohol can be." —Michele Filgate, Community Bookstore, Brooklyn, NY
