Another Indie Favorite

The Colour of Milk: A Novel, by Neil Leyshon (Ecco, $14.99) "Heartbreaking, breathtaking, and very human, The Colour of Milk reads less like historical fiction and more like a memoir. Mary is a hardworking but willful farm girl in rural England until her abusive father 'sells' her to the local vicar as a servant. Her new position brings her opportunities for education and wider knowledge than she ever had before, but there are consequences. This gripping story of power, family, and self-determination will pull you right in and stay with you for a long time." —Caitlin Caulfield, Odyssey Bookshop, South Hadley, MA
