Other Indie Favorites

Unremarried Widow: A Memoir, by Artis Henderson (Simon & Schuster, $25)

"Unremarried Widow is a love story that will tug at your heartstrings and make you ache for Henderson as she tells the story of how she met—and lost—her husband, Miles, a handsome young Army pilot. As their love grew, they moved in together and bought a rundown house near the base. When Miles was deployed to Iraq, they e-mailed and phoned until the day Henderson walked into her mother's house and found two uniformed officers waiting for her. This is a brilliant book about a young woman's love and loss, couched in transcendent language that will cut you to the quick."

—Kathy Ashton, The King's English Bookshop, Salt Lake City, UT

The Wind Is Not a River: A Novel, by Brian Payton (Ecco, $26.99)

"A grand tale of devotion and adventure set in a forgotten theater of World War II, Payton's new novel is convincingly told. Along with journalist John Easley, the stranded protagonist, readers feel the Arctic wind screaming across Japanese-occupied Attu in the remote Aleutian Islands and are swept along by the parallel narrative of Helen, John's wife, as she sets off from her native Seattle in a bold, imaginative effort to locate her missing husband. Compelling!"

—Chris Wilcox, City Lights Bookstore, Sylva, NC
