Other Indie Favorites

The Secret of Magic: A Novel, by Deborah Johnson (Amy Einhorn Books/Putnam, $26.95)
“A young lawyer who is sent by Thurgood Marshall to Mississippi in 1946 to investigate the murder of a black soldier encounters a world both surreal and mysterious. Regina Robichard learns that the Jim Crow South is a world unto itself, but she also learns the power of narrative and story as she meets a reclusive author who produced the book that influenced her childhood. This is a novel of subtlety, incisive portraits, and a brilliant evocation of a time and place on the cusp of momentous change.” —Bill Cusumano, Nicola's Books, Ann Arbor, MI

The UnAmericans: Stories, by Molly Antopol (W.W. Norton, $24.95) “Antopol has written a pitch-perfect collection of stories that capture the essence of human survival and triumph: a grandmother sharing the tale of her harrowing sewer-line escape from the Nazis and her rescue by a young resistance worker who ultimately becomes her husband; an aspiring actor of Russian descent jailed during the McCarthy era who is attempting to build a relationship with his son; a struggling, middle-aged adjunct professor who worries that the play his daughter is producing may expose the secrets of his escape from Czechoslovakia. Each story is a gem to be savored.” —Nancy Simpson-Brice, The Book Vault, Oskaloosa, IA
