Other Indie Favorites

Dept. of Speculation: A Novel, by Jenny Offill (Knopf, $22.95) "I found myself gasping at the sheer beauty and conciseness of Offill's sentences in this portrait of a marriage. Dept. of Speculation can be devoured quickly, or readers can linger in it over many sittings. Covering the topics of love, loneliness, grief, joy, fidelity, beauty, depression, mania, motherhood, and writing, the shifting points of view are subtle yet profound, and despite the darkness and sadness of the story, when I closed the book I was left more alert and attentive, and feeling more alive. Highly recommended!" —Janet Geddis, Avid Bookshop, Athens, GA

Orfeo: A Novel, by Richard Powers (W.W. Norton, $26.95) "Orfeo is the kind of novel that creeps slowly into a reader's consciousness and makes a home there. A beautiful, cerebral book that's as concerned with the past and how the decisions made by protagonist Peter Els shaped his personal philosophies and relationships and how music played a role in it all, as it is with the very real present and how Peter's hobbyist interest in DNA makes him an accidental bioterrorism threat. Orfeo is an intelligent and incredibly moving portrait of the role of art in both one man's life and society as a whole. Stunning!" —Lauren Wisner, Left Bank Books, St. Louis, MO

Another Indie Favorite

Frances and Bernard: A Novel, by Carlene Bauer (Mariner, $14.95) "The main characters in this lovely gem of a novel are loosely based on Flannery O'Connor and Robert Lowell. The story is told entirely in the form of letters—not an easy feat—but Bauer makes it work beautifully. Frances and Bernard meet in the late 1950s at a writers' colony, and though they don't immediately click, Bernard sends Frances a letter that begins an intense philosophical, spiritual, and physical relationship. A true treat for readers!" —Cody Morrison, Square Books, Oxford, MS

Another Indie Favorite for Ages 9 to 12 The Carpet People, by Terry Pratchett (Clarion Books, $17.99)

"With all the charm of Pratchett's Tiffany Aching series, The Carpet People will be fascinating to his long-time fans and will garner new ones as well. Written when Pratchett was only 17, this humorous young adult novel grew out of his weekly column in a local newspaper. Illustrated by the author, The Carpet People tells the story of the Munnung tribe. Their village is destroyed by the Fray, which sets two Munnung brothers on a series of adventures in their tiny world. Enjoy this funny, slightly strange glimpse into the genius of Terry Pratchett!"
