Other Indie Favorites

The Secret of Raven Point: A Novel, by Jennifer Vanderbes (Scribner, $26) "This story of a young woman's tour of duty as a WWII Army nurse is remarkable. Headed for a career in science, Juliet veers toward nursing in an effort to find her brother who is missing in action in Italy. Hope, love in many variations, stories of soldiers, doctors, nurses and support staff, the wounded and dying, civilians and officers—it's all as messy as war and also splendid, heroic, and prosaic. Readers will be drawn in by the characters and deeply moved by the telling of their stories. Books as special as this make my job as a bookseller a joy!" —Becky Milner, Vintage Books, Vancouver, WA

The Crane Wife: A Novel, by Patrick Ness (The Penguin Press, $26.95) "Based on a Japanese folk tale, The Crane Wife spins a story about two artists—one of whom may not be fully human—and how they achieve the act of creation and destruction, both in their art and in their personal lives and relationships. The characters are fully drawn, each with faults but very lovable in their own ways, and the act of creation is beautifully explored through children, art, and budding relationships, as well as through myths of earth-creation. This is my favorite read of the year—and it's been a good year for fiction!" —William D. Carl, Books on the Square, Providence, RI

Another Indie Favorite

Kind of Kin: A Novel, by Rilla Askew (Ecco, $14.99) "The nature of this wonderful novel set in small-town Oklahoma is like its characters—raucous, messy, uncertain, and foolishly brave. After a surprise immigration raid on Mexicans that scoops up even some respected citizens, everyone struggles to understand where they stand and how to act. This is a large, kind-hearted story of less than perfect folks caught in a maelstrom while still trying to abide by their ethical and spiritual beliefs. Askew's story is a most timely look at who is welcome into our lives and how we express and share compassion even when times are tough and language is a barrier." —Sheryl Cotleur, Copperfield's Books, Sebastopol, CA
