Another Indie Favorite

The Love Song of Jonny Valentine: A Novel, by Teddy Wayne (Simon & Schuster, $15)

"A bittersweet, frank, and funny take on modern celebrity, The Love Song of Jonny Valentine introduces a young pop phenomenon whose career and every move is managed by his mother who has her own set of problems with drugs and men. Jonny, who is haunted by the memory of his missing father, is both wise and appallingly naive as he deals with his newfound fame, the business of pop music, and the users and hangers-on of the celebrity world. A touching, funny, and moving view of stardom and how talented young people deal with sudden fame and success." —Ellen Burns, Books on the Common, Ridgefield, CT
